

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Chris Barton is a highly skilled superintendent and union foreman with an 18-year tenure at Level 3 in Local 635, certified across seven disciplines. He leads and supervises field crews through framing, drywall, ICF, steel, and finish work, with a comprehensive command of union protocols, industry regulations, and safety standards.

EXPERIENCE

Superintendent / Foreman Jewel Isaac, LLC - Fairbanks, AK

Fox Blocks (ICF) installation, rough and finish carpentry, steel fabrication and erecting, welding, siding and roofing, steel-stud framing, gypsum board and drywall finishing, FRP, insulation, material ordering, and coordination with other trades.

Foreman / Leadman Precision Steel & Gypsum, Inc. - Boise, ID

Welding, steel-stud framing, gypsum board and drywall finishing, acoustic ceilings, FRP, and trade coordination.

Foreman Bethel Service Inc. - Anchorage, AK

Layout, steel-stud and wood framing, frames, doors and hardware, welding and handrail installation, heavy-equipment operation, and project housing management.

CERTIFICATIONS

- OSHA 30 · STP 40-hour Supervisor · CPR · First Aid.
- Boom lifts, scissor lifts, and forklifts.
- Certified across seven construction disciplines; Local 635, Level 3.