

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Seth Church is the founder and owner of Jewel Isaac, LLC and has built and led Alaska construction companies for two decades. He has grown Jewel Isaac into a statewide general contractor serving commercial, government, industrial, mining, and oil & gas clients, with a relationship-driven model and a reputation for delivering hard projects in hard places.

EXPERIENCE

Founder & Owner Jewel Isaac, LLC - Fairbanks, AK · 2016-Present

Established and owns Jewel Isaac, providing top-tier general contracting throughout Alaska. Has served clients including Safeway, Fred Meyer, Costco, and federal agencies with an unwavering commitment to excellence.

Co-founder & Co-owner C Company - Fairbanks, AK

Built and sold multiple homes and grew the company to more than 30 employees, pioneering and managing expansion into several industries.

Co-founder & Co-owner C Company General Contractors, LLC - Williston, ND

Supported the oil & gas industry in the Bakken, expanding the company into one of the largest hydro-excavation contractors in North Dakota.

Co-founder & Co-owner Vision Construction International, LLC - Fairbanks, AK

Partnered with a service-disabled veteran to build a successful SDVOSB, securing government and private-industry contracts.

LEADERSHIP & RECOGNITION

- Regent, University of Alaska - appointed to help oversee the statewide University of Alaska system.
- More than 20 years building across Alaska and the Bakken.
- Self-perform general contracting, business development, and organizational leadership.